

TERMS OF AGREEMENT
JOHAN NOORLOOS TEACHER TRAINING

By completing this transaction the student accepts the following:

1. In accordance with the law, the student has seven days consideration time after registration. Within this term it is possible to cancel the registration without any administrative or cancellation cost.
2. Payment of fees is to be paid in accordance as the price and payment rules in this form indicate:
 - * Cost of cancellation up to two months before starting date: €100,-
 - * Cost of cancellation up to one month before starting date: 25% of all fees
 - * Cost of cancellation within one month before starting date : 50% of all fees
 - * Cost of cancellation after starting date : 100% of all fees
3. After cancellation, any fees that are to be returned back to the student are transferred into their bank account within ten working days.
4. Anyone who does not pay in compliance with the payment terms as specified above may be obliged to complete all fees immediately, also if cancellation is done during the course year.
5. Whenever there is an urgency to hand over the obligation of these payment terms to a third party, the cost hereof is the responsibility of the student.
6. De Nieuwe Yogaschool and her teachers are not responsible for any damage or physical harm before, during or after her teacher training. The student is assumed to be in good bodily shape and inform teachers of any physical injuries and/or deviations as well as disease. The student is also assumed to be aware what (s)he is physically capable of. The student has to let the teacher know how far they may go in their manual corrections.
7. The student assumes full responsibility for any harm that may come from using the space in which education is offered.
8. De Nieuwe Yogaschool is not responsible for damage to or losing personal belongings before, during or after her teacher training.
9. In all assessments of the acquired level of knowledge and skill (e.g. the granting of certificates) the students is obliged to accept the judgment of the responsible teachers.
10. The scheduled class days and times may be changed by the organization involved. Such changes are timely announced. Completed payments are also reserved for these changes.
11. The student agrees that under no circumstance does the obligation to pay fees expire as well as that paid fees will not be reimbursed.
12. Alongside these terms of agreement, the general terms of agreement of De Nieuwe Yogaschool are also applicable.